

Blundell Harling - Speed-Time-Distance Slide Rule NATO Pattern

This simple to use slide rule device is for calculating the third variable given the other two (distance covered, given speed and elapsed time) to a NATO pattern.

Features

Order code 0655.37

Since 1948 Blundell Harling Ltd has manufactured and distributed an extensive range of drawing equipment, scale rules, templates and technical drawing equipment for use by technical students in further education, architects, engineers, specialist designers, draughts people, and graphic artists. This extensive experience ensures that their navigational instruments are amongst the very finest available.

