

This 5 inch square Douglas-type pattern navigational protractor can also be used as a simple parallel rule and plotter.

Features

Order code 0656.6

Since 1948 Blundell Harling Ltd has manufactured and distributed an extensive range of drawing equipment, scale rules, templates and technical drawing equipment for use by technical students in further education, architects, engineers, specialist designers, draughts people, and graphic artists. This extensive experience ensures that their navigational instruments are amongst the very finest available.

